Featured wine

...Over many years, we have tossed out our original Bordeaux mindset and moved to one rooted in the Mediterranean. Spanish varieties seem best-suited to our site, in particular – Graciano, Mourvedre, Grenache. We have found that one Bordeaux variety, Petit Verdot, provides us with a distinctive spicy/peppery/meaty blending component. Finally, Tannat, a black, burly variety from just north of the Pyrenees, has shown itself to be well-adapted to southeastern Arizona's terroir. As for white wine, we have only one estate white now – Lisa's – a blend of Viognier, Marsanne, Roussanne, Malvasia Bianca, Clairette and Petit Manseng. The object is to produce an uncommonly nuanced white wine with great freshness and flavor "chew". With all of our wines, our primary concerns are depth of flavor and complexity. Textural considerations are secondary and best addressed by appropriate cellaring and/or food pairing. Approximately 85% of our time is spent working in the vineyard. Any discussion with any serious wine producer in the world is always dominated by viticultural details and the weather patterns of any given vintage. Wine potential is determined in the vineyard. So our winemaking approach is decidedly simplistic – no gizmos, lots of barrels (new to fifteen years old), aging on the lees and little racking.

Estate Grenache/Touriga Nacional/Malbec. This is a one off (most likely). We have a tiny bit of Touriga Nacional and Malbec that usually don't perform well, but in 2017 everything clicked. Aromatic, complex, and yes, pretty, this wine is already a house favorite with Lisa....

2017 Callaghan Vineyards "Bonita" Grenache/Touriga Nacional/Malbec, Sonoita
